Welcome

Historians believe that the Chinese fleets discovered much of the known world, bringing with them unusual spices and unimaginable riches.

Junks were the Chinese vessels that plied the ancient spice route. Just like those ships, Junk Lounge brings you the precious flavours and exotic aromas of distant Asian shores. Our street food is for sharing and exploring.

Savour the unique flavours of Asia journeyed on ancient voyages, interpreted and retold by our own native produce and local influences.

“Sailing 10,000 miles is better than reading 10,000 books”
– Ancient Chinese proverb
